To Our Beloved Friends

It is now a few days past Thanksgiving and soon Christmas will be here. We had a wonderful Thanksgiving with family at our house. Pam did most of the cooking and prepared one traditional turkey in the oven and Michael cooked a second turkey outside on the grill. We were glad the wind had died down from the day before! Although our youngest daughter was not with us during Thanksgiving, she arrived late at our house Friday (well, more like Saturday about 2 am with two wound up dogs who made sure we were all up!) and we are happy to say, her husband and a U-Haul of furniture arrived late Saturday. They have moved back home after spending 10 or so years in the Raleigh, North Carolina area. To say we are happy to have them back home is an understatement.

In reflecting on the year, we have had a good year. Sure, as life often unfolds, the year was not without its challenges. But the successes and happiness far outweighed the challenges. Every year is different but change and growth (personally and professionally) are both a necessity and lay the groundwork for success. We continue to grow at the law office and even received an award for growth. However, we recognize that the success of the Brumbaugh law office is based on the relationships we have built over the years and the families we have been honored to help. We really wouldn't be where we are without you.

We are grateful for the opportunity to work with and for you. Our passion for helping families find peace of mind and assist with their estate and elder law planning and wealth protection remains strong.

We are excited that we are in the process of expanding our office to allow us to help more families and to have room for our growing team. Don't worry, we aren't moving. We are expanding into office space next door.

It is because of you, the families we get to help and our colleagues, that our growth has continued to advance. During this season of Thanksgiving, we feel especially grateful for the families we have been able to help sometimes through very difficult times. We appreciate the confidence you have in us to care for your family and friends. Thank you for this blessing.

Working together with you this past year has been a pleasure and we're proud to have you all with us. Best wishes and happiness to you and your families over the Christmas season. We look forward to a wonderful 2020 working together.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all.

Thanks to all your votes, we won 3rd place in the Reader's Choice Awards earlier this fall!
